About Organization

In the heart of the Naxal-affected region of Gadchiroli district, Maharashtra, lies a beacon of hope and transformation – The Josh Foundation. Situated in the remote village of Jimalgatta, this organization has been making a profound difference in the lives of tribal and underprivileged people through its multifaceted approach encompassing education, healthcare, an orphanage home, and de-addiction services.

The Josh Foundation's presence in the Naxal-affected region of Gadchiroli is a testament to the power of compassion and determination. Despite the myriad challenges posed by the remote and often dangerous environment, the organization continues to serve as a beacon of hope, fostering growth and development for the underprivileged communities in the area. The foundation's work is an inspiring example of how dedicated individuals and organizations can make a significant difference in the lives of those who need it most.

President

Welcome Message

Dear Friends and Supporters,

I am Dr. Sangita Medi, and I am deeply honored to serve as the President of the Josh Foundation, a non-profit organization committed to bringing about positive change in one of the most underprivileged regions of Gadchiroli district in Maharashtra. Our mission is driven by our unwavering values, and our vision is to create a brighter future for the tribal and underprivileged communities in this area.

Currently, we are providing healthcare services and education to the underprivileged, but we aspire to do more. Our future plans include the establishment of addiction centers to combat the challenges of substance abuse in the region. Additionally, we aim to provide safe and nurturing environments for orphaned children through orphanage homes.

We cannot achieve our goals without your support and involvement. Together, we can make a significant difference in the lives of those who need it the most. If you would like to join us in our endeavors, whether through donations, volunteer work, or other forms of support, please reach out to us. Your help will be invaluable in achieving our mission and turning our vision into a reality.

Thank you for your support, and let's work together to bring hope, health, and education to the people of Gadchiroli.

With heartfelt gratitude,
Dr. Sangita Medi
President
The Josh Foundation

Our Future Plans

Over the last two years, we have witnessed the tremendous impact of our work on the lives of the individuals and communities we serve. We have been able to offer education to underprivileged children and provide vital healthcare services to those in need.

However, we believe that it is time to take a step forward and create a more stable and impactful foundation for our mission. Our foremost goal is to secure land and construct dedicated school and hospital buildings. This step is essential to further expand our services and ensure a sustainable future for the communities we support.

A dedicated facility will not only provide a safe and conducive environment for learning but also enable us to offer comprehensive and uninterrupted healthcare services.
